Perhaps one of the most overlooked wardrobe accessory is the glove. Ensure they fit your hands well because an ill-fitted glove looks sloppy. You may wonder why you should wear them at all, so here are a few reasons as to why owning even one pair of gloves can elevate your overall look.

1. Neglecting your hands in the cool weather is a fashion faux pas. There's nothing worse than cold hands and gloves are the perfect accessories for keeping them warm. You can tell a lot about a person by their hands, so it's important to protect them from the harsh elements.
2. They're practical and stylish. The right pair of gloves can emit power, simplicity and common sense. Deciding on a color could be a struggle and in that situation it's best to stick with a basic black or grey. Otherwise, color choice depends on what you're using them for, how often you'll be wearing them, and the look you're going for. Don't hesitate to step outside of your comfort zone and try a rich hue in red, blue or orange.
3. They're versatile in warmth and style. There are a variety of glove styles to choose from. Silk-lined leather gloves are smooth and comfortable making them the perfect glove to own. Gloves lined with sheepskin are the traditional choice for warmth and generally come with a leather exterior. Wool gloves are another great choice if you're looking specifically for warmth, with the best materials coming from Scotland. Lastly, leather-driving gloves are not only designed to improve your driving comfort but are ideal for shielding your hands from the changes in temperature.
4. They give you an expensive look. They enhance your overall look by adding an element of sophistication and go with everything down to suits – just ask the iconic Karl Lagerfeld who never goes out in public unless his hands are covered.
